

Disease management education at the tip of your fingers.

Providing free education and resources through online videoconferencing community with the ECHO model.

Project ECHO (Extension for Community Health Outcomes) is a lifelong learning and guided practice model that revolutionizes medical education and exponentially increases workforce capacity to provide best-practice specialty care and reduce health disparities.

Register now at www.echoontario.ca

Weekly sessions through videoconferencing to a community of providers and interprofessional team at an academic/hospital setting

Didactic lecture by the interprofessional team or invited experts

Present and participate in real de-identified case presentations by primary care providers, and receive treatment recommendations

Available for any primary care provider in Ontario

Earn free Continuing Professional Development (CPD) credits

Gain knowledge, receive recommendations and enhance confidence and skills to deliver best practice care to patients

Reduce variations in care, promote best practice and interact with primary care providers across the province in a supportive community

Available ECHOs: Chronic Pain, Rheumatology, Hepatitis C, Mental Health, Pediatric, Child and Youth Mental Health, Indigenous, and more!